

Minimum Sampling Percentage

Definition: The minimum percent of Review Items needed in a given File Review to adequately represent the health of the study as a whole. The minimum sampling percentage is specified in a File Review Template as a fixed percentage and can also be calculated by eTMF using sample size parameters.