Non Document Review Item

Definition: A type of Review Item that defines a general quality check that is not specific to a single document (e.g., check for missing Regulatory documents). Non Document Review Items can be specified in a File Review Template from a dictionary or can be added as free text directly to a File Review.