

Expected Document

Definition: Indication in eTMF that a document is expected to be received via scanning. Provides a user with the ability to enter document metadata and generate a Transmittal.